The Seidman Research Institute, W. P. Carey School of Business at ASU conducted an Economic Impact Study to assess the impact of the Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Phoenix in our local community. To do this, the study monetized the following benefits for Club members, their parents/caregivers, and the wider Maricopa community as a whole:

- Improved rates of high school graduation and the lifetime earnings of Club members.
- A decline in juvenile criminal activity.
- Reduced levels of teenage pregnancy and motherhood.
- Reduced levels of underage drinking and the use of marijuana and tobacco.
- Enhanced opportunity for parents to continue working.
- Impact of BGCMP operations and volunteers.
