How Boys & Girls Clubs of the Valley Impacts
Our Families and
Our State

Dear Friends and Champions of Arizona's Youth

Imagine a world where every child in Arizona graduates not just with a diploma, but with a plan for their future. Where working parents have peace of mind knowing their children are safe, supported, and thriving. Where communities are stronger because young people are equipped with the skills, character, and vision to lead positive change.

This isn't just imagination – it's the measurable reality we're creating together at Boys & Girls Clubs of the Valley.

This year's new study from Arizona State University's L. William Seidman Research Institute has independently verified what we see every day: Boys & Girls Clubs of the Valley generates $14.79 in community benefits for every $1 invested. This extraordinary return on investment reflects the comprehensive impact of our programs across education, health, public safety, and economic development.

In our membership year July 2024–June 2025, we served 21,136 (14,690 members) across 30+ Clubs, representing 8,732 households throughout Arizona. Our programs enabled 5,640 working families to maintain employment, contributing $210.8 million in economic productivity to our state. We prevented juvenile crime, improved health outcomes, increased graduation rates, and strengthened the workforce pipeline.

But behind every statistic is a story. A story of a child who found their voice through our leadership programs. A parent who could pursue career advancement knowing their child was safe and supported. A teenager who discovered their passion through our AZYouthforce program and now has a clear path to economic mobility, changing their family's future.

Your investment in Boys & Girls Clubs of the Valley creates ripple effects that strengthen our entire community.

Together, we can imagine – and build – a stronger future for Arizona.

With gratitude,

About ASU's Seidman Institute's Economic Impact Report 2025 for Boys & Girls Clubs of the Valley

About the Study

This report was developed in partnership with the L. William Seidman Research Institute, the applied research and consulting arm of the W. P. Carey School of Business at Arizona State University. The Seidman Institute employs rigorous economic modeling—including the nationally recognized IMPLAN input-output system—to estimate the direct, indirect, and induced impacts of Boys & Girls Clubs of the Valley (BGCAZ) on Arizona's economy. These models provide a comprehensive view of the ripple effects generated by BGCAZ's operations, workforce, and the behavioral outcomes of the youth and families served.

With Gratitude to The Steele Foundation

This report and the economic impact analysis it presents would not have been possible without the generous support of The Steele Foundation. A longtime partner and champion of youth development, The Steele

Foundation is deeply committed to ensuring that every child—regardless of their ZIP code—has access to the opportunities and support needed to thrive.

The Foundation focuses its investments on initiatives that educate the whole child, emphasizing measurable outcomes, innovative approaches, and community impact. By supporting this study, The Steele Foundation has enabled Boys & Girls Clubs of the Valley to not only measure the scope of its work, but to tell a broader story about the long-term value of youth development, out-of-school care, and family support services in Arizona.

Their commitment goes beyond philanthropy—it's a belief in data-informed action and a brighter, more equitable future for Arizona's children.

Methodology & Data Inputs

Primary data was sourced from BGCAZ Club members and caregivers through the National Youth Outcomes Initiative (NYOI) and a Seidman-administered caregiver survey. In 2024, over 1,400 youth across 26 Clubs completed the NYOI, while more than 1,700 households responded to the caregiver survey in English and Spanish. These data sets were combined with BGCAZ's operational data and external benchmarks to estimate outcomes in education, workforce, public health, and juvenile justice.

Nutrition and Financial Assistance

Nutrition: Fueling Success

No child can reach their full potential on an empty stomach. Boys & Girls Clubs of the Valley ensures that every member has access to nutritious food through one of Arizona's largest nonprofit meal programs. Every meal served represents a child who can focus on learning, growth, and building their future rather than worrying about their next meal.

These were provided at no cost to families through the USDA's Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP) and Summer Food Service Program (SFSP).

Beyond daily nutrition, Clubs help children develop lifelong healthy habits through cooking classes, garden-to-table lessons, and family nutrition workshops that extend wellness beyond the Club walls.

Our comprehensive approach to youth wellness recognizes that food security is foundational to academic success, emotional health, and community stability.

Financial Assistance: Removing Barriers for Working Families

Boys & Girls Clubs of the Valley believes every child deserves access to safe, enriching programs—regardless of a family’s financial situation. Across our 30+ Clubs, we proudly offer financial assistance to ensure that dollars are never a barrier to opportunity. Many of our families are working parents striving to make ends meet in a challenging economy, balancing rising costs of living with the need for quality childcare.

In FY2024–25, $664,078 in financial aid was provided to families across Arizona, supporting thousands of youth who might otherwise be unable to attend the Club. This investment reflects our unwavering commitment to inclusion and affordability—ensuring that every parent who believes in the power of the Club can access it. When financial barriers are removed, families thrive, communities strengthen, and every child gains the chance to believe, imagine, and build a brighter future.

Scholarships & College Access

At Boys & Girls Clubs of the Valley, Club teens can explore the full range of post-secondary options—trade/technical programs, community college, and four-year universities—with hands-on support to plan, fund, and persist in their next step. Our College Access & Success function helps members and parents complete scholarships and applications, and map out their best plan for success.

Volunteers are essential to our operations and impact. Two groups in particular—corporate teams and service-learning students—extend our mentorship, homework help, and events across all of our Clubs.

In FY2024–25, 2,460 corporate volunteers contributed 5,545 hours (valued at $186,866.50), powering activities from homework help and STEM demos to fitness challenges and community drives.

Through our service-learning partnerships with Arizona colleges and universities, students complete required field and practicum hours in our Clubs, turning classroom learning into real-world experience in education, health, and public service. This model gives young people on professional pathways a place to earn hours, build skills, and learn from youth-development work, while delivering more caring adults and richer programs for our members.

Leading with Purpose: Our Board of Directors

At the heart of Boys & Girls Clubs of the Valley's mission stands our dedicated Board of Directors—community leaders who believe in the boundless potential of Arizona's youth. Each month, these volunteers bring their invaluable time, talent, and expertise to guide our organization's strategic vision, ensuring we remain focused on creating opportunities that transform young lives.

Our Board members don't just attend meetings—they champion our cause. They believe in our mission, imagine innovative pathways forward, and actively build bridges to new possibilities. Their commitment extends far beyond the boardroom, as they leverage their professional networks and community influence to advance our work.

Over the past two years, we've asked our Board to work to engage with and educate community leaders; and, they've answered the call with remarkable dedication. Board members now regularly connect with local elected officials, sharing the impact of our programs and advocating for policies that support youth development. They've opened doors to critical conversations, helped secure additional resources for our agency, and served as ambassadors in their communities, translating their belief in our mission into action that directly benefits the young people we serve.

Their leadership exemplifies what it means to invest not just financially, but personally, in powering possibilities for the next generation.

Arizona law allows QCO donations made during 2025 or donations made from January 1, 2026 through April 15, 2026 to be claimed on the 2025 Arizona income tax return (filed in 2026). If a taxpayer makes a QCO donation from January 1, 2026 through April 15, 2026 and wants to claim the higher 2026 maximum credit amount ($506 single/$1,009 joint), the taxpayer will need to claim the credit on the 2026 Arizona return filed in 2027.
